ULTIMATE HOMES & RENOVATIONS

A self-proclaimed workaholic, Danny Ritchie has immense knowledge in every aspect of his luxury renovations and custom homes business, Ultimate Homes & Renovations. His 40 years of experience in both running the company and working in the field equip him with the know-how to come up with creative solutions for any job, while his goal is always to ensure the customer receives the best solution.

"In September of 1991 there was a devastating hailstorm in Calgary that brought us here for extensive exterior work. This led to our first addition above a garage which is still standing. From there we went from additions to renovations, and from renovations to custom homes. And we're still growing!" ~ Danny Ritchie, President & Co-Owner
